ELSON ART EXHIBITION DISPLAYED OCT. 26-27

Many Famous Reproductions From Pictures by Noted Artists. Senior Class Presents Pantomimes

The Elson Art Exhibit was given in Sheldon Hall Friday and Saturday, October 26 and 27, under the supervision of Miss Aiken.

The walls of the auditorium were all lined with more than 200 wonderful reproductions of pictures by all the best artists of the world—English, French, Italian, Greek and American.

Probably several of the best known pictures were:

1. Sistine Madonna ..... Raphael
2. Aurora ..... Reni
3. The Pot of Basil .... Alexandria
4. The Angelus ..... Millet
5. The Dance of the Nymphs..Cartot
6. The Reapers ..... Millet
7. The Gleaners ..... Millet

On both Friday and Saturday nights the Senior Class pantomimed several of the pictures. The frame was built on the stage and in this frame were shown the "live" pictures of:

1. The Sower ..... Millet
Elsie Burton
2. Song of the Lark ..... Millet
Elizabeth Lewis
3. Feeding the Hens ..... Millet
Polly Greenwalt
4. Spirit of '76 ..... Willard
Draper, Clark, Rolston
5. The Girl with the Apple.. Grenze
Lucy James
6. The Last Watch of Hero ..Leighton
Mina Jordan
7. The Girl with the Cat .. Hoecker
Mary Lacy
8. Old Age ..... Gruerer
Carrie Dickerson
9. Age of Innocence ..... Reynolds
Virginia Brockwell
10. Baby Stuart ..... Van Dyke
Evelyn Chesser
11. Mona Lisa .. Leonardo De Vinci
Katharine Regier

The proceeds from the Exhibit went to the Senior Tea Room, "The Rabbit Hole."

The school certainly owes Miss Aiken a vote of thanks for getting this wonderful exhibit here and there is no doubt but that all who attended it were greatly benefited.

Ensemble Class

Miss Trappe has organized an Ensemble Class which meets every Saturday morning at nine o'clock. They have enjoyable times playing compositions for two, three, and four violins. Those interested in this work are Margaret Kneisley, Grace Luck, Mary Pettus, Mary Drewry, Katherine Buchanan, Zelia Wisman and Alice Watts.

G. G. Movie

The G. G. Movie, "Woman's Place", starring Constance Talmadge, was shown in Sheldon Hall, Friday 19. It was attended by the majority of the student body. The club is to be congratulated upon securing such an excellent picture. After seeing it, everyone surely knows what a woman's place is. Even though man may seem to triumph, she usually retains her place as Boss.

PI KAPPA OMEGA'S ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Honor Society Choose Four Well Known Teachers to Act in Advisory Capacity. Officers Also Elected

The Associate members of the Pi Kappa Omega Society have been recently elected by the members of that organization. They are Miss Elizabeth Cleveland, Miss Kate Anthony, Dr. John W. Wayland and Dr. John Walter Gifford. These members stand especially high in scholarship and are well known throughout the state.

The Pi Kappa Omega officers are as follows: President—Margaret Ritchie, Secretary and Treasurer—Emma Dold, Historian—Florence Shelton.

Snyder Prize

Attention! Everybody!

Any student in school, Staff included, may try for the Snyder prize of ten dollars which is given annually by the Breeze Staff for the best article appearing in the Breeze during the year.

Articles of any type will be considered—news articles, editorials, or "skits". They will be published without the name of the writer and just as regular articles. A careful record will be kept of the contributors.

Mr. Adolph H. Snyder, for whom the prize is named, was first of all a distinguished and capable newspaper man, editor of the Harrisonburg Daily News from 1903 to 1910 (when he died), and of the Rockingham Register from 1889 to 1910. Secondly, Mr. Snyder was an active worker for the establishment of the State Normal School at Harrisonburg, and was appointed to the original Board of Trustees, which he served as secretary up to the time of his death. Thirdly, Mr. Snyder was interested in public affairs, having been president of the Harrisonburg School Board and member of the Virginia House of Delegates for Rockingham county at the time of his death.

A committee of impartial judges, very probably faculty members, will choose some of the best articles published.

H. N. S. MAY BECOME TEACHERS COLLEGE

Legislature Will Be Requested to Change Name. Support of Alumnae Solicited

An old dream of everyone who holds dear the memories of "Bluestone Hill" is to make our school a standard college. At a recent meeting of the Normal School Board a resolution was passed to request the Legislature at the next session to change the name of the four Normal Schools to embrace the word college. The exact title was left to the four presidents to decide. The name of "State Teacher's College" at Farmville, East Radford, Fredericksburg, and Harrisonburg will be recommended to the Normal School Board.

The Legislature will convene in January and a special effort will be made to solicit the influence and support of the Alumnae. A school is known by its alumnae; it is as strong as its alumnae. The growth of your alma mater means an increase in the professional value of a degree or diploma from the school. Alumnae, if you are asked for support, lend it gladly.

G. G. Club Entertainment

The G. G. Juniors were entertained in the Y. W. rooms on Tuesday night, October 30, 1923. The G. G. Seniors gave this social as a means of getting acquainted with the new G. G. students and of taking them in the G. G. Club. The seniors felt that all the G. G. students should be members of their club.

The president, Elsie Burton, gave the girls a welcome. Then Margaret Ritchie gave a talk on "The Purpose of the Organization." Mabel Kirks told something of the past and present of the club. Lucy James told of the plans for the year.

Then the program was turned over to Delia Leigh, chairman of the entertainment committee. After several stunts refreshments were served.

Did everybody see the Shenandoah?

FAMOUS BARITONE DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

Reinald Werrenrath Sings to Packed House on October 25. Special Numbers Bring Great Applause

On Thursday, October 25, Reinald Werrenrath, baritone, accompanied by Herbert Carrick at the piano, sang to a large and appreciative audience in the New Virginia Theatre. The audience was delighted with his voice and his pleasing stage presence. There is little doubt that he added many of them to his host admirers.

This concert was arranged by the Music Lover's Club and was the first of the Lyceum programs. The program was arranged in such a manner that everyone might appreciate it. Selections from the Classic Period were first on the program, next came those from the Romantic Period, and those from the Modern Period concluded the program. By special request he sang "On the Road to Mandalay," "Smiling Through" and several others which will long be remembered.

Reinald Werrenrath, America's famous baritone singer, is of Danish ancestry. He was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., and is a graduate of the University of the City of New York. He is among the most popular of Victor artists. Harrisonburg was indeed fortunate in procuring such a talented artist.

The following was Werrenrath's program:

I

Dank sei dir, Herr .... G. F. Handel
Che fiero Costume..Giovanni Degrenzi
Over the Hills and Far Away (Old Irish) ..Arr. by Wm. Arms Fisher

The Breeze Constitution Amended

At the Student Body meeting on October 23, Margaret Ritchie, editor-in-chief of The Breeze, suggested an amendment to The Breeze constitution she stated that, owing to the enlarged enrollment of the school and the amount of work the paper requires the staff should be larger.

The following amendment was approved by the student body and made a part of the Breeze constitution:

"That the Breeze staff should appoint three reporters from the Student Body at large."

Reporters

Clarinda Holcomb, Mary Warren, Frances Clark, Elizabeth Ralston, Thelma Eberhart, Clyde Carter, Madeline Bishop, Virginia Simpson.

Silence!

What do we mean by silence? Does it mean to be quiet? Is it to talk and laugh as loudly as you can?

Where do we want silence? We want it in and around the library. That means in the hall just as much as in the library, because if you yell in the hall everyone in the library hears you. The librarian appreciates it immensely when you are quiet and everybody would be benefited.

Why do we want it? Because we must have it! We must not disturb other people. Sometimes others want to study even if we don't. We must remember this and be considerate of others. Consideration for others makes silence in the library a necessity.

You must help us get it.

Support Your Chairman

Support your House Chairman! We must each and every one do this or the Chairman cannot do her work effectively. If she is to help settle our little problems, we must cooperate with her. We must help her to find the solutions of the problems. One person could not solve all the little questions that come up, but if we all help, it will make it easier for the Chairman and all concerned.

New Reporters

The Breeze Staff has appointed three new members from the student body at large. They were needed in order to lessen the work of each reporter.

Virginia Simpson and Clyde Carter were chosen especially as typists, but they will also write when it is necessary. Madeline Bishop is the other new member. She knows the mechanics of English and is also original.

We are glad to welcome these girls to the staff and a share in our work.

Speaking of Pockets

What is a pocket?

Is it not a cavity in which we put that which we want to keep? Is it not something which girls don't have much of?

Girls, can you imagine a pocket always ready to engulf that little bit of fluffy linen, or that letter which you want to keep ever near you, or the piece of candy you want to take your "lady friend"?

Why do we let some man in New York or Paris tell us whether or not we shall have pockets? What's style anyway that it should make us endure such inconvenience? Do we care what the multitude says? Let's start a revolution in the "Pocket World". Others have started them, why can't we? We've gotten the vote and we'll get the "Pocket".

Here's Your Chance

The desire for a school paper published by the students has long been felt at H. N. S. Last year "The Breeze" was started. It is a paper published exclusively by the girls. This does not mean that it is a paper for which the staff writes, but one to which every girl in school should contribute at least once a year. If you can't write poetry, write prose, write an editorial, a news article, or anything you want someone else to know. Remember it is your paper and there is always a chance for you to contribute. It is one way you can show your "Harrisonburg Spirit". Drop any article in the editor's box any time.

Entertained At Rawley Springs

At two o'clock, thirty-five merry girls, under the chaperonage of Miss Cleveland and Miss Seegar, piled into two trucks and went to Rawley Springs. These girls were the members of the various committees of the Y. W. and they were to be entertained at Rawley Springs by the cabinet.

They had a most enjoyable time climbing around on the mountains, visiting Lover's Leap, and looking for chestnuts. Then they had a most delicious supper which consisted of hot dogs roasted over the camp fire, sweet potatoes and cakes.

After supper, each committee had its meeting. Then everybody went into the cottage where they sat around the open fire. Miss Seegar told a story and sang a song which everybody enjoyed. Miss Wilson and Miss Anthony both told stories. But Miss Cleveland insisted that she "didn't know a thing." The girls then toasted marshmallows and sang songs.

After good-nights had been said, all the girls piled in the trucks for the return ride. They arrived at the school tired but happy.

House Chairmen Elected

Among the business matters that were taken up at the Student Body meeting of October 23 was the matter of a House Chairman in each of the dormitories. Sallie Loving explained the purpose of the House Chairman and her duties. She requested a meeting to be held in each dormitory on Wednesday night to elect a chairman.

The Head Monitor, the chaperon of the dormitory, and the House Chairmen are to serve as a committee for the settlement of small matters that may arise in the dormitory. This council has full authority in the administration of House affairs. Heretofore every little offense, such as making noise during study hour and the like, has been taken before the Student Council for settlement. As it is now, the House Committee, headed by the Chairman, will relieve the Council, will take charge of all House meetings, and will be responsible for the welfare of its dormitory.

At the meetings Wednesday night the following Chairmen were elected: Jackson Hall ..... Vena Upchurch Ashby Hall .... Elizabeth Richardson Spottswood Hall .... Celia Swecker Alumni Hall ..... Marion Smith Cleveland Cottage ..... Jean Gose Carter House ..... Mary Jackson

CAMPUS CATS

THE LAUNDRY BAG TRAGEDY

Many terribly strange things happen At school most every day, But one of the cruelest episodes, Came about in just this way.

Sue and Mattie began to consider Since Mary was mentally weak They would put her out of all trouble If of it, neither would speak.

And so they went down to see her And killed her. That memorable night! After tying her up in her laundry bag, Hung her way out of sight.

"You say this horrible thing is true And they hung her there by the hair?"

"Why, no, Sue ate a big dinner And was having an awful nightmare."

LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG

Mr. Logan (In English class)—"I certainly liked the way Mr. Werrenrath sang "Drink to Me Only With Mine Eyes." He sang it like a true lover and you know a lover doesn't express everything in words.

ROLL UP THE SCORE, GIRLS

One of the Grammar Grade Juniors, when asked the score for the Hockey game answered, "Zero to nothing.

DON'T FAIL TO SIGN UP

Miss Lovell (Demonstrating stove in the infirmary): "As soon as you turn it off, it goes out."

Mrs. Varner, (calmly): "Well, it should have my permission."

S. O. S.

If you are a bit poetic,

Just display it,

If you have any wit

Well, portray it.

Just anything will do

Whether it be false or true,

If a joke is told to you,

Why waylay it.

There's a colyum in the Breeze

Just for fun,

And its brilliance radiates

Like the sun.

If good things you chance to see

Send them to box 223,

And we'll print them, believe me,

Everyone.

A committee is a thing that it takes twelve hours to do a piece of work that one good girl could do in an hour.

THERE AIN'T NONE

How do girls manage these days when they want to laugh up their sleeves?

Tom Says

"These girls, they strut around the town,

With ruffles on their bestest gown

Some think they're new, but all the while,

I know they are really last year's style."

Chapel

Friday, October 19—Mr. Sublett gave a very interesting talk on the largest dirigible in the world, the Shenandoah. This is named after the Shenandoah Valley.

Monday, October 22—Mr. Dingle-dine told us about the automobile industry. He gave us some very startling figures.

Monday, October 29—Dr. Wayland gave a most interesting and helpful talk on the historic Shenandoah Valley.

Wednesday, October 31—Mary Lip-pard told us about her trip to Richmond where she attended the Near East Relief Conference. The Athletic Council had charge of the rest of the meeting.

Musical Treat

At the regular meeting of the Choral Club the members were given an unusual treat. Mr. P. H. Baugher sang some very pretty songs, among which were: Duna, I Passed By Your Window, A Memory, Gray Days, Sor-ter Miss You, Hard Trials, and Bye and Bye. This latter is a selection from "The Gypsy Rover" which he took part in last year.

Annual Staff At Work

The girls who worked on the annual last year and who are back are Celia Swecker, Shirley McKinney, Nancy Mosher, Suzie Goeghegan, Nancy Roane, and Mabel Kirks. Edith Ward, who was editor-in-chief two years ago, has promised to help.

All of these members will serve until Christmas. At the beginning of the second quarter a new staff will be elected, but there is very little doubt that these faithful members will be reelected.

The business manager is on the job receiving letters, telegrams and advertisements that need attention.

Choral Club Entertained

Monday night, October 22, was social night at the Choral Club. After the roll was called the Club entertained themselves by singing or rather learning to sing a negro spiritual. When a sufficient grasp of the tune and words had been reached Miss Shaeffer took a back seat to fully enjoy the program.

Peggy Parham, from the Senior class, sang "My Buddy" most charmingly. The encore proved quite as delightful. In spite of a cold Elizabeth Warner, from the Junior class, rendered a very funny and attractive song which also received an encore. Several members of the Glee Club charmed the audience with a pleasing selection presented in a most unusual but most artistic style. After this the school orchestra arrived and succeeded in convincing the club that they were "the real thing".

The orchestra has been recently enriched by two violins, and a new pianist, all three Juniors. Louise Sheppe still handles the drums and Edna Draper is there with the banjo.

The program closed with the entire club singing "Old Virginia".

I wish I were a little egg

Away up in a tree,

I wish I were a little egg

As bad as bad could be.

I wish you were a little boy,

Down underneath that tree,

And then I'd bust my little self

And spatter you with me.

Personals

Louise McCaleb, Thelma Dan and Doris Persinger spent Sunday with Miss Ruff of Harrisonburg.

Standards For Clubs

A standard for clubs at H. N. S. has been made by the President's Council and approved by the Administrative Council. This standard requires that each club shall have a constitution and a purpose. The minimum membership shall be twenty. The officers shall consist of a president, a vice-president, a secretary and a treasurer. There shall be one regular meeting a month or a minimum of six meetings a year. The dues shall be held down as low as possible. Each club shall give at least one program in chapel during the year. At each meeting, some form of program must be given.

A Word From Home

(This is a letter to one of the girls from a little sister at home.)

"Dear little Polly:

We were so glad to get your letter and I will write a few words before supper. I want you to answer all of these questions and send them back to me—

Have you curled your hair since you have been there?

What is your other room-mate's name?

How do you like your big sister?

Isn't it about time for you to take a bath?

What do you have for breakfast?

How many times have you been down town?

How many hours do you stay in school?

Is your room near Carrie and Lucie?

Do you have to study much?

Heaps of love,

Julia."

Friendship is the only cement that will hold the world together.

Patronize the "Rabbit Hole".

Be a sport! Let the other fellow study during study-hour.

Presbyterian Picnic

Saturday afternoon, after the excitement caused by the passing of the "Shenandoah" had subsided, nearly 75 girls assembled at the circle to await the start of the Presbyterian picnic. After a great deal of distributing and redistributing of the girls in different cars, amid exclamations of joy, everyone was finally settled, and the real fun started. The girls were taken for a ride in the country, some cars going to New Market, others to Fort Defiance. After a most enjoyable trip everyone met again at Massanetta Springs, where the ladies of the church were preparing supper. By the time everything (including the swimming-pool, spring, etc. had been explored) "Daddy" was calling the crowd to supper, which consisted of delicious pimiento and salad sandwiches, pickle, hot coffee, ice cream and cake. The girls surely did justice to the meal, and many brought home samples of cake and sandwiches. Dr. Wilson and several other men of the church donated a barrel of apples and suspicious-looking bulges in sweaters and coats showed that these were fully appreciated. After supper came the drive-home in the twilight and the end of a perfect afternoon.

Hockey Game

Hurrah for the G. G. Seniors! Saturday morning was an exciting time for the Grammar Grade and High School Senior Hockey Teams. During the game a foot or a head was frequently knocked instead of a ball, but no one was seriously hurt.

The game was played in fifteen-minute halves, each time the one section giving the other a chase. At the end of the first half, the score ran two to one in favor of the G. G.

The second half ended a hard fight with the score of three to two, the winning side being the G. G.

This competition between classes spurs the section on to better playing.

The line-up was as follows:

H. S.	G. G.
Monk Clark	M. Cockerill
Center Forward
Mock	Cook
Right Forward
Wine	Cleaton
Left Forward
Rubush	Hinegardner

Student Body Picture

After lunch Friday, October 26, the entire Student Body filed out of the dining hall to have their picture taken. The deed was done in front of Science Hall, Mr. Aufenger, firing directions right and left, the girls wriggling and squirming to get a peep at the camera. Mrs. Varner and Sallie were forcibly brought to the front for the place of honor. At last every body was posed and the camera turned slowly around drinking in the mass of "girlishness".

Stratford Goats

"Ba-a—Ba-a—Ba-a."

Everybody craned their necks, the new girls in particular, to find the reason for all the "back-breaking-bending" and seemingly silly salutations. Those who knew, either from observation or better still from experience quickly acquainted those who knew not with the fact that the "Stratford Goats" were out.

The words, "Stratford Goats" holds a world of meaning for those who have "been along there" and why things are as they are fills many with mysterious wonderings.

The "goats" appeared at breakfast on Saturday morning and created quite a sensation in the dining hall.
Here, there, everywhere, was heard the familiar "Ba-a", which was the greeting a Stratford received from a goat. It is rumored that some of the aspirants lost at least a pound from their regular exercises, seeming aversion to food at times, practice in wielding a brush and a mop, and everything else that goes along with being a "goat".

This apprenticeship lasted till Wednesday night when a royal feast prepared in a most royal fashion was served the Stratfords and the "goats" in the dining hall. The Stratfords did not enter the dining hall until the students were seated. The banquet table was at the extreme right end of the hall and was beautifully arranged using the Stratford's colors, pink and green, which was carried out in the candles and the mints. The place cards were miniature goats, a more convenient size for memory books than the ones so closely associated with "Goat Days". Each girl found at her place a Russell rose bud.

The goats were somewhat disguised but after careful deliberation one could recognize Mattie's permanent grin beneath a coal black layer of cork. She represented a darky of "Ole Virginia", Aunt Hannah by name.

A look at Mary Warren and it was certain that Rebecca of Sunnybrook
Farm was not dramatized in vain.
Charlie Chaplin, even to cane and derby, was there and one could hardly tell that it was Edith. Sue Kelly represented Louise Fazenda, and Carrie Dickerson, Mary Pickford. To see Mattie trying to eat with her black hands and Edith trying to control her "moustache" was a scream. It was all in all, a jolly affair but it was regretted that neither Miss Hudson, the advisory, nor Mr. Johnson, the honorary member, were able to be present at the banquet.

After the banquet there was a mystic meeting from which the one time
"Goats" emerged as real "STRAT-FORDS".

Excitement in Class

One loud scream! Six girls on the table! Two on chairs! Why the scream? Why these highly elevated positions? Do you need to ask?
'Twas only a poor wee, little, insignificant, frightened mouse, who chanced to run across the floor in History class.

Poor fellow, he meant no harm but what a commotion he caused! Excuse him. He'll not come again.
